MY HOLIDAYS

HISTORICAL DESTINATIONS

India & International Heritage Travel Catalogue

DISCOVER • EXPLORE • EXPERIENCE

A curated starter guide featuring 25 historic places in India and 25 international heritage destinations. Each entry includes a short introduction and a suggested season to visit.

Travel seasons are general guidance. Weather, local festivals, opening days and access conditions can vary; confirm details before booking.

PART 1 — HISTORICAL DESTINATIONS IN INDIA

Explore India's diverse heritage: ancient civilisations, Buddhist and Hindu monuments, medieval kingdoms, Mughal architecture, forts and royal palaces.

1. Taj Mahal, Agra, Uttar Pradesh

A celebrated Mughal mausoleum built by Emperor Shah Jahan; a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Suggested season: October–March

2. Agra Fort, Agra, Uttar Pradesh

A major Mughal fortress-palace with monumental gates, halls and views towards the Taj Mahal.

Suggested season: October–March

3. Fatehpur Sikri, Uttar Pradesh

Akbar's 16th-century imperial city, known for Buland Darwaza and its palace complex.

Suggested season: October–March

4. Qutub Minar, Delhi

A 12th-century victory tower and landmark of the early Delhi Sultanate.

Suggested season: October–March

5. Red Fort, Delhi

A red-sandstone Mughal citadel associated with Shah Jahan and India's modern national celebrations.

Suggested season: October–March

6. Humayun's Tomb, Delhi

A landmark Mughal garden-tomb whose design influenced later architecture, including the Taj Mahal.

Suggested season: October–March

7. Hampi, Karnataka

The spectacular ruins of Vijayanagara, with temples, royal structures and boulder-strewn landscapes.

Suggested season: October–February

8. Mysore Palace, Mysuru, Karnataka

An ornate royal residence of the Wadiyar dynasty, especially striking when illuminated.

Suggested season: October–February

9. Ajanta Caves, Maharashtra

Buddhist rock-cut caves renowned for ancient murals and sculpture.

Suggested season: November–March

10. Ellora Caves, Maharashtra

A remarkable complex of Buddhist, Hindu and Jain monuments, including the Kailasa Temple.

Suggested season: November–March

11. Elephanta Caves, Maharashtra

Island cave temples near Mumbai, celebrated for monumental rock-cut Shaiva sculpture.

Suggested season: November–February

12. Konark Sun Temple, Odisha

A 13th-century temple conceived as the stone chariot of the Sun God.

Suggested season: October–February

13. Khajuraho Group of Monuments, Madhya Pradesh

Temples famous for intricate stone carving and exceptional medieval architecture.

Suggested season: October–March

14. Sanchi Stupa, Madhya Pradesh

One of India's oldest surviving Buddhist monuments, with richly carved gateways.

Suggested season: October–March

15. Gwalior Fort, Madhya Pradesh

A dramatic hilltop fort with palaces, temples and a long history of regional kingdoms.

Suggested season: October–March

16. Rani ki Vav, Patan, Gujarat

An intricately decorated 11th-century stepwell and UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Suggested season: October–March

17. Dholavira, Gujarat

A major Harappan city showcasing the planning and water-management skills of the Indus civilisation.

Suggested season: November–February

18. Chittorgarh Fort, Rajasthan

A vast hill fort associated with Mewar's history, palaces, towers and stories of resistance.

Suggested season: October–March

19. Jaisalmer Fort, Rajasthan

A living desert fort of golden sandstone, with lanes, havelis and Jain temples.

Suggested season: November–February

20. Amer Fort, Jaipur, Rajasthan

A hilltop Rajput palace-fort known for courtyards, gateways and mirror-work interiors.

Suggested season: October–March

21. Mehrangarh Fort, Jodhpur, Rajasthan

A commanding fort overlooking the Blue City, with palaces and a museum collection.

Suggested season: October–March

22. Hawa Mahal, Jaipur, Rajasthan

The iconic Palace of Winds, built with a distinctive honeycomb façade.

Suggested season: October–March

23. Rashtrapati Bhavan / India Gate heritage area, Delhi

Landmarks of New Delhi's colonial-era urban planning and modern national history.

Suggested season: October–March

24. Charminar, Hyderabad, Telangana

A 16th-century monument at the historic heart of Hyderabad's old city.

Suggested season: October–February

25. Mahabalipuram, Tamil Nadu

Pallava-era shore temples, rock-cut caves and monolithic monuments along the Coromandel Coast.

Suggested season: November–February

PART 2 — INTERNATIONAL HISTORICAL DESTINATIONS

A selection of world-famous archaeological sites, ancient cities, imperial landmarks and places of cultural memory across Asia, Europe, Africa and the Americas.

1. Pyramids of Giza, Egypt

The monumental Old Kingdom pyramids and Great Sphinx on the Giza Plateau.

Suggested season: October–April

2. Petra, Jordan

A Nabataean city carved into rose-coloured rock, famed for the Treasury and ancient trails.

Suggested season: March–May; September–November

3. Colosseum, Rome, Italy

The iconic Roman amphitheatre that reflects the scale and spectacle of imperial Rome.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

4. Acropolis, Athens, Greece

A hilltop complex crowned by the Parthenon, central to ancient Greek history.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

5. Machu Picchu, Peru

An Inca citadel high in the Andes, set amid dramatic mountain scenery.

Suggested season: May–September

6. Chichén Itzá, Mexico

A major Maya archaeological city, recognised for El Castillo and its astronomical associations.

Suggested season: November–April

7. Angkor Wat, Cambodia

A vast temple complex and masterpiece of Khmer architecture near Siem Reap.

Suggested season: November–February

8. Great Wall of China, China

A vast network of fortifications built and rebuilt across successive dynasties.

Suggested season: April–May; September–October

9. Forbidden City, Beijing, China

The former imperial palace complex of China’s Ming and Qing dynasties.

Suggested season: April–May; September–October

10. Terracotta Army, Xi’an, China

Thousands of life-sized figures guarding the tomb complex of China’s first emperor.

Suggested season: March–May; September–November

11. Borobudur, Indonesia

A monumental 9th-century Buddhist temple with carved reliefs and stupas.

Suggested season: April–October

12. Kyoto Historic Monuments, Japan

A collection of temples, shrines, gardens and historic districts reflecting Japan's imperial heritage.

Suggested season: March–May; October–November

13. Himeji Castle, Japan

A remarkably preserved feudal-era castle known as the White Heron Castle.

Suggested season: March–May; October–November

14. Ephesus, Türkiye

A major ancient Greco-Roman city with a celebrated library façade and theatre.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

15. Hagia Sophia, Istanbul, Türkiye

A landmark monument shaped by Byzantine and Ottoman history.

Suggested season: April–May; September–October

16. Stonehenge, United Kingdom

A prehistoric stone circle and one of the world's best-known ancient monuments.

Suggested season: May–September

17. Tower of London, United Kingdom

A historic royal fortress, palace and former prison on the River Thames.

Suggested season: May–September

18. Palace of Versailles, France

The grand royal palace and gardens associated with the French monarchy.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

19. Pompeii, Italy

A Roman city preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in AD 79.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

20. Alhambra, Granada, Spain

A palace-fortress celebrated for Nasrid architecture, courtyards and gardens.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

21. Petra-like desert heritage: Wadi Rum, Jordan

Desert landscapes with ancient rock inscriptions and long-standing Bedouin heritage.

Suggested season: March–May; September–November

22. Baalbek, Lebanon

Monumental Roman temples, among the most impressive surviving examples of Roman architecture.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

23. Meteora, Greece

Historic monasteries perched on towering rock pillars, combining cultural and natural heritage.

Suggested season: April–June; September–October

24. Robben Island, South Africa

A significant site in the history of apartheid and the struggle for democracy.

Suggested season: November–March

25. National Mall heritage sites, Washington, D.C., USA

A concentration of national monuments and museums tracing United States history.

Suggested season: March–May; September–November

SAMPLE HERITAGE HOLIDAY ITINERARIES

Use these sample routes as starting points for tailor-made packages. Travel times and attraction access should be checked for the selected dates.

India: Golden Triangle — 6 days / 5 nights

Day 1: Arrive Delhi; visit India Gate and selected heritage sites. Day 2: Explore Old Delhi and Qutub Minar. Day 3: Drive to Agra; visit Agra Fort. Day 4: Sunrise visit to the Taj Mahal; continue to Jaipur. Day 5: Visit Amer Fort, City Palace and Hawa Mahal. Day 6: Departure from Jaipur or return to Delhi.

India: Karnataka Heritage — 5 days / 4 nights

Day 1: Arrive Bengaluru and travel to Mysuru. Day 2: Mysore Palace and local heritage sights. Day 3: Travel to Hampi. Day 4: Explore the Vijayanagara ruins. Day 5: Departure via Hubballi or Bengaluru, depending on transport.

International: Rome & Florence — 6 days / 5 nights

Day 1: Arrive Rome. Day 2: Colosseum and Roman Forum. Day 3: Vatican area and historic centre. Day 4: Travel to Florence. Day 5: Explore Florence’s historic centre and museums. Day 6: Departure.

International: Cairo & Giza — 4 days / 3 nights

Day 1: Arrive Cairo and explore the historic city. Day 2: Giza Pyramids and Great Sphinx. Day 3: Visit major museums and historic districts. Day 4: Departure.

IMPORTANT TRAVEL NOTES

• Opening hours, ticket prices, permit rules and access arrangements can change. Verify with official tourism or monument authorities before confirming a package.

• Some religious and archaeological sites have dress codes, photography restrictions or visitor limits. Follow local guidance and protect heritage structures.

• Suggested seasons are broad climate-based recommendations, not guarantees of weather or operating conditions.

• Package pricing is not included because it depends on departure city, dates, transport, accommodation category, group size and inclusions.